Kensington Historical Society presents:

Highlights from Kensington's 130 Years of History

Monday, May 20 • 7:00 pm

How much of Kensington's history do you really know?

Join us for an all-star panel of Kensington experts to talk about our town's past and how it has shaped our future. We will hear about some of Kensington's key historic places, the history of Antique Row, the amazing historic homes, the many parks and gathering places, and our special connection to the KenGar community. Whether you are new to town or have lived in Kensington your whole life, you will enjoy this evening of Kensington stories honoring the town's 130-year anniversary. The panelists are:

- Tracey Furman, Town of Kensington Mayor
- Conor Crimmins, Town of Kensington Council Member
- Ann Lichter, Town of Kensington Council Member
- Karen Jackson-Knight, KenGar historian
- Helen Wilkes, KHS member and architect

The Moderator is Kate DeWitt, President, Kensington Historical Society.

Two ways to attend:

- In-person: In the drill hall of the Kensington Town Hall, 3710 Mitchell Street, Kensington, MD 20895
- Virtual: Use this Zoom link at the time of the presentation: <https://tinyurl.com/48by3jfk>

This event is free of charge. An RSVP to info@kensingtonhistory.org is appreciated for planning purposes, but not essential for admittance.

The Kensington Historical Society (KHS) has been an integral part of Kensington since 1977. Our programs address a broad view of our local history. We encourage Kensington-area citizens to join us and consider becoming active KHS members: KensingtonHistory.org
